IN PERSON MEETING JUNE 3

Monthly meeting in person

Our 6 pm June 3rd meeting will be the last one of the season. We will be gathering at HD South, in the Neely room (where our monthly meetings are held). To stay mindful of the lingering pandemic, bottles of water will be provided along with a packaged snack. Rather than a pot luck this year, you may bring a box lunch for yourself and your significant other if desired. The meeting will include the announcement of the Artist of the Year, the Summer Challenge, and of course, the Silent Auction Fundraiser.

Our silent auction is both fun and rewarding. Members are invited to bring art supplies no longer needed. As in the past, they will be set on tables in the Neely Room. Members will have the opportunity to list the amount they are willing to offer for each item. At a designated time, you can claim your items. Cash or checks are preferred, but cards will also be accepted. The proceeds go to the GVAL general fund to defray expenses. HD South suggests either masks, or a social distance of at least 3 feet when indoors.

Don't forget to bring items for the auction and the earlier meeting time of 6 pm!

May zoom demonstration by John Priddy

In our May meeting we had an informative presentation by John Priddy. So much great information on how to take pictures with the cell phone! Now we can head out this summer and take wonderful pictures for our paintings! Thanks John for your great presentation!!

Spotlight on Christina Rosepapa

Christina Rosepapa depicts the world in her thoughts and observations of nature and life by combining multiple mediums, such as colored pencils, pastels, and graphite in her art. She enjoys expressing vibrant color and contrast in her work and wants to inspire the viewer to experience curiosity or a deeper connection to people and nature.

Art has always been a passion for Christine. In her childhood, she drew horses and flowers in her backyard and continued pursuing art through her college years as a fine arts major. Currently she is a professional Graphic and Website Designer with her own business, combining both her interest in art and design.

Christina has been honored to exhibit her work in several juried shows, galleries and museums in Arizona including; Greater Phoenix Economic Council, The Casa Grande Art Museum, Art Intersections, West Valley Art Museum, OneohOne Art Gallery and private shows. She has been featured in azcentral, Shoutout Arizona and Voyage Magazine. She teaches workshops and sip and paint classes for fun. Christina has made a career in graphic and web design as the owner of Rosepapa Creative in Gilbert Arizona, and enjoys traditional art as an escape from the digital world.

We are happy to have Christina as part of our Gilbert Visual Artists!
